DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

(e) the invention was described in-

(1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effect under this subsection of a national application published under section 122(b) only if the international application designating the United States was published under Article 21(2)(a) of such treaty in the English language; or

(2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that a patent shall not be deemed filed in the United States for the purposes of this subsection based on the filing of an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a).

2. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Lightner et al..

The patent to Lightner et al. Discloses a wireless diagnostic system OBD-11 data that includes speed and odometer data over wireless system 15. The data processor 102 processes the OBD-11 signal.

3. Claim 17 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Schipper et al. .

The patent to Schipper et al discloses a vehicle odometer that uses speed data at various time periods as obtained from an LD unit that may be G.P.S. to determine odometer data and thus calibrate the vehicle odometer as shown in Figures 7a and 7b.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

5. Claims 2-9 and 18-19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over

Lightner et al in view of Schipper et al..

The patent to Lightner et al discloses a system as described above that lacks the use of a G.P.S. unit to determine odometer data by using speed at various intervals. The patent to Schipper as described above teaches using G.P.S. speed data to derive odometer data as described above. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to provide the system of Lightner with G.P.S. odometer data as taught by Schipper et al. in order to calibrate the vehicle odometer and provide a more accurate data log.

6. Claims 10-16 and 20 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

7. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to R. Cabby whose telephone number is (703) 308-2088.
